About Us

Protect My Rights Owner and CEO, Barrett Morris, has worked as an expert in Compliance for over 20 years. Mr. Morris developed Protect My Rights to help not only Companies but also citizens, that maybe in need of ensuring that their Rights are protected at work and in the community.

Protect My Rights is the first and only National Civil Rights firm that offers a quick and easy way to file a complaint of discrimination and harassment, by downloading the App Protect My Rights and clicking a few buttons. PMR's App not only will help citizens preserve their rights and file a complaint against any institution, it also has a component that allows them to connect with an expert consultant from Morris Consulting Groups team of compliance experts. This will ensure your complaint is received by your company and the appropriate state and federal agency. It also allows our experts to walk you through a process that can be confusing and time consuming.

The days of trusting HR with your confidential concerns are no longer reliable. Protect your rights by Downloading our App and put your compliance concerns in the hands of the experts. Or call us at 1.844.RIGHTS.1

Our Services Include
